Gravel sales are subject to the following terms and conditions:

1. Aggregate sold by the County is for Personal Use only. The purchase of aggregate from the County by corporations or other business entities is not permitted. Resale of aggregate purchased from the County is prohibited. Individuals found to have resold aggregate will be prohibited from purchasing aggregates from the County.
2. A Ratepayer may only purchase up to a maximum of two hundred (200) tonnes of gravel or pit run, or a combination thereof, per calendar year. A minimum purchase of three (3) tonnes is required.
3. Aggregate purchases, up to the maximum allowable amount per year, are limited to one individual ratepayer associated with a single municipal address and a single tax roll number. Multiple purchases by the same ratepayer, or for the same municipal address or tax roll, are not permitted.
4. The purchase price of any Gravel Ticket(s) not redeemed on the sale date and at the location specified will be void. Tickets must be returned to the Wheatland County Administration Office prior to December 31st of the year purchased for a full refund or re-issue for a different day, if scheduled and available.
5. The purchaser, or any party hauling aggregate on the purchaser's behalf, is responsible for ensuring that their hauling equipment is engineered to be loaded by means of mechanical loading equipment and may legally transport loose aggregates. The County loader operator retains the right to, at their sole discretion, refuse to load any vehicle deemed unsuitable for loading or hauling.
6. Ratepayers are responsible to ensure the weight of aggregate purchased and indicated on each Gravel Ticket can be legally and safely hauled with their vehicle.
7. All members of the public must remain in their vehicles, follow all posted signage, and obey instructions from County staff. Any individuals not adhering to posted signage or to instructions from County staff, will be required to exit the site and may not be permitted to re-enter County-owned Gravel Pit sites in the future.
8. Vehicles must immediately exit the pit following loading, where members of the public will then be permitted to exit their vehicle in a designated area to tarp and prepare their load for transport.
9. Privately owned loading equipment and hand loading is not permitted within County Gravel Pits.

By signing below, I confirm that I have read, understood, and am in agreeance to the above terms and conditions.
