Wheatland County Agricultural Service Board

Member-at-Large Application Form

Application Deadline: October 1, 2026

Wheatland County invites applications for Members-at-Large to serve on the Agricultural Service Board (ASB). The ASB is a committee appointed by Wheatland County Council to address agricultural matters within the municipality. This is achieved through the development and evaluation of agricultural policies and programs.

Applicants should have knowledge and experience in a broad range of agricultural areas, reside in or own property within Wheatland County, and be available to attend four daytime board meeting per year, in addition to optional Regional and Provincial ASB Conferences. Members may also be asked to participate in other ASB-related committees.

Appointments may be made during Wheatland County Council's Regular Council Meetings for a three-year term, with eligibility for reappointment. The Board includes both Councilors and Members-at-Large; however, the exact composition moving forward will be determined at the organizational meeting. Wheatland County Council reserves the right to accept or reject any or all applications. Additional information about the ASB is available on the Wheatland County website: wheatlandcounty.ca/agriculture/
